Participants' Thoughts

"My favorite session was the one presented by Shane Knight. I love how he brought his presentation alive by sharing his own truth of how he implemented change in his school. I walked away with great tools and ideas on how I think about change in my leadership journey."

"My favorite session was that of Dr. Caceres on Personal Leadership. His presentation was reflective, emotional, and much needed."

"My favorite session was the equity workshop facilitated by Yasmeen Mohammed. She provided a pathway towards improving equity at schools so all students succeed. There were tools shared so leaders can begin this work at their schools. But most importantly, Yasmeen shared context for why this work must happen and her personal experience."

"The keynote speaker was my highlight. She moved me with her gentle, positive energy. She inspired me with her messages. I left with a strong sense of hope and love."
